Chore Charts and Rotation

Matched to what a child can actually do

MATCHED TO WHAT A CHILD CAN ACTUALLY DO

A chore chart fails for one of two reasons: the jobs are too big for the age, or only one person in the house is on the chart. Both are fixed on these pages.

FIVE RULES THAT MAKE IT WORK

1. Show, do it together, then hand it over. Three times, not once. 2. The chart has pictures or short words, never paragraphs. 3. Ten minutes of chores beats an hour, and an hour beats a Saturday. 4. Adults appear on the chart too. 5. Reset the chart every Monday, because a chart that is never wiped is a chart nobody reads.

> Pay attention to effort, not outcome. A five year old who made the bed badly is still a child who made the bed.

PLEASE READ THIS PAGE

This is a printable planning document, not professional advice. It is sold as a reference and a record keeping tool. It is not legal, financial, tax, medical, veterinary, engineering, agronomic or safety certification, and it does not replace a licensed professional, your local code official, your county extension office, or the manufacturer of any product you use.

You are responsible for your own decisions. Conditions differ by place, climate, equipment and person. Read the whole document before relying on any figure, date or interval in it, confirm anything that matters against the current official source, and use your own judgment before acting.

Activities for children need an adult present. Several activities involve scissors, small parts, water, heat, food, outdoors, tools or fire. Adults are responsible for choosing what is age appropriate, supervising it, and checking the surroundings and materials first. Nothing here replaces your own judgment about the children in your care. No educational, developmental, behavioral or health result is promised or implied by any page in this pack.

WARRANTY AND LIMIT OF LIABILITY

This document is provided as is, without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including fitness for a particular purpose. If a file is defective or will not open, write to us and we will send a replacement or refund the purchase price in full. That refund is the limit of our obligation and our liability, and we are not liable for indirect or incidental or consequential damages. These terms are governed by the law of the State of Arkansas.
