Certificates and Awards

Twelve awards, print and sign

TWELVE AWARDS, PRINT AND SIGN

Print the ones you need, on card if you can. A certificate that costs thirty seconds and gets stuck on a fridge is the cheapest motivation available to a teacher.

AWARD	WHEN TO GIVE IT
Student of the Week	One per week, rotating, never the same child twice in a month
Reading	For a book finished, not for a level reached
Mathematics	For persistence on a hard problem
Kindness	For something nobody asked them to do
Most Improved	Compare to themselves, never to the class
Perfect Attendance	Whole class or whole term only
Science	For a good question, not just a right answer
Handwriting	For the best page of the week
Teamwork	Nominated by a classmate
Citizenship	For helping the room, quietly
Leadership	For running something, not for winning it
Hard Work	The one you can give any child on any day

The rule. Every child gets one before the year ends, and the quiet ones get theirs first.

PLEASE READ THIS PAGE

This is a printable planning document, not professional advice. It is sold as a reference and a record keeping tool. It is not legal, financial, tax, medical, veterinary, engineering, agronomic or safety certification, and it does not replace a licensed professional, your local code official, your county extension office, or the manufacturer of any product you use.

You are responsible for your own decisions. Conditions differ by place, climate, equipment and person. Read the whole document before relying on any figure, date or interval in it, confirm anything that matters against the current official source, and use your own judgment before acting.

Activities for children need an adult present. Several activities involve scissors, small parts, water, heat, food, outdoors, tools or fire. Adults are responsible for choosing what is age appropriate, supervising it, and checking the surroundings and materials first. Nothing here replaces your own judgment about the children in your care. No educational, developmental, behavioral or health result is promised or implied by any page in this pack.

WARRANTY AND LIMIT OF LIABILITY

This document is provided as is, without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including fitness for a particular purpose. If a file is defective or will not open, write to us and we will send a replacement or refund the purchase price in full. That refund is the limit of our obligation and our liability, and we are not liable for indirect or incidental or consequential damages. These terms are governed by the law of the State of Arkansas.
